

HARRY V. MILBANK

He Makes a Statement Concerning Borrowe's Case.

HIS HONOR AND REPUTATION

Must be Cleared of the Imputations that Now Rest on them—Tom Ochiltree's Declaration.

(Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.)

NEW YORK, March 31.—Harry Vane Milbank, one of Borrowe's second, gave a long statement to the Herald this evening in which he said: "The time has now come when Mr. H. A. Borrowe's honor and reputation must be cleared of the imputations that now rest on them. As to one of the offences that is charged against him, the one that the correspondence in the affair was published with his authority, this is disposed of completely by Mr. Fox's letter to Mr. Borrowe in which he gives his reasons for sending the correspondence to the papers after Mr. Borrowe left England. Anyone can see that at any rate Mr. Fox in no way shirks the responsibility of what he did. My first duty is to Mr. Borrowe, to do everything in my power to clear his character before the world. This step I take now entirely on my own responsibility, as at present his honor, his reputation, his entire fortune turns on this one point—was an agreement entered into between Mr. J. Coleman Drayton and his wife. This agreement was made. It was drawn up by Messrs. Lord, Day & Lord. Colonel Harrow, the subscribing witness, and later on, in the beginning of February of this year, the terms of the agreement were endorsed by Mr. Drayton's lawyers in London, Messrs. Kingsford & Darroon. It is dated October 25, 1891, and the part which concerns the monetary consideration is to the following effect: 'The wife has an income of $35,000 per annum, under all circumstances she retains one-half. She agrees that the other half be placed with trustees, $5,000 of which shall be paid to the husband and $12,000 to herself for the maintenance of the children. Out of the money she receives, the wife is graves he had robbed. When the police searched his lodgings they found among other evidences of criminal operations a set of counterfeiters' tools. When questioned regarding the possession of these unlawful belongings, he coolly acknowledged he belonged to a gang of counterfeiters, but persistently refused to make any admission that would lead to the detection of his confederates. It is acknowledged on all sides the police had good reason to believe Harvachol would make a desperate resistance against arrest, and those who condemned them for the police were right in not attempting to effect his capture until they made sure there was no chance of his escape. The Echo states Harvachol admitted he was the author of the Boulevard St. Germain explosion. The chief detective arrested Chaumartin, an accomplice of Harvachol, who under arrest, who betrayed his leader with the police Harvachol intended to blow up the house of Bulot, one of the prosecuting counsel in the recent trial. Harvachol's residence is 33 Rue Clichy, the scene of the destructive explosion Sunday morning. Harvachol lived at St. Maude, near the wood of Vincennes, four miles southeast of Paris. He was seen going to Paris Sunday morning, carrying a small portmanteau. Harvachol is watched in prison night and day by three detectives. He is the illegitimate son of a German countess born in France. It is reported late to-night Gustav Mathieu, the most dangerous accomplice of Harvachol, has been arrested and promises to reveal everything to-morrow. Harvachol carried the bomb used in Boulevard St. Germain and placed it in position.

Anarchist Delaney Arrested.

Paris, March 31.—The police have arrested Anarchist Delaney on the charge of stealing dynamite. His description tallies with that of the man seen in the vicinity of 39 Rue Clichy Sunday morning after the explosion.

The Death Penalty for Dynamiters.

Paris, March 31.—The senate has approved the bill imposing the death penalty on persons convicted of using dynamite unlawfully. Anarchist prisoner assent Harvachol was concerned in recent murder and robbery, realizing $3,000 francs. He also assisted in stealing dynamite from the factory at Terey.

Contestants Allowed Expenses.

Washington, March 31.—The Senate committee on privileges and elections has decided to allow $4,000, and $2,500 respectively to Claggett and Davidson, contestant, and $2,000 to Dubois to meet the expense he was put to in defending the title to his seat.

Emperor William's Health Better.

(Special to THE HERALD—Examiner Dispatch.)

New York, March 31.—A Herald special from Berlin says the Emperor's health is much improved since the operation was performed on his ear. That he has been ill is a positive fact, in spite of the contrary statements of certain German newspapers. M. De Giers is ill at St. Petersburg with erysipelas. His physicians attend him three times a day, and although up to the present time they show no unusual optimism to the result, M. De Giers himself is by no means so sanguine.

Extent of the Mandalay Fire.

LONDON, March 31.—At 4:30 p. m. a dispatch from Calcutta gives the intelligence received in that city up to 5 o'clock in the afternoon. According to this dispatch, the fire at Mandalay originated in the vicinity of the Catholic school. It spread to Dyer's brewery, thence along the streets of native houses. These houses were crowded and caught fire in rapid succession until miles of streets were ablaze. The dispatch makes no mention of the loss of life. It does not say from what source or by what means the news reached Calcutta, nor whether the fire is yet extinguished or got under control.

The Fire Breaks Out Afresh.

RANGOON, March 30.—The fire in Mandalay yesterday burned itself out after causing immense damage. To-day there were two fresh outbreaks. The first, in the eastern part of the city, had its origin in a cluster of huts. The flames spread a mile, then the wind changed, and drove them back to the law courts, thence it extended towards the incomparable Pagoda, destroying a large number of valuable pagodas. To-night the third fire has just broken out in the British cantonment and the flames are racing furiously. It is impossible to form an estimate of the money loss, but it will be enormous.

The Fire Raged Fourteen Hours.

There was no loss of life, but many thousands are homeless, and extensive relief will be necessary.

A Girl Suicides.

ALTOONA, Pa., March 31.—Last night Miss Emma Fox shot and killed herself with a revolver because Miss Birdie Bontz, with whom she had fallen in love, refused to return the affection. The young ladies are both of good parentage and well-to-do.

An Informer Murdered.

PITTSBURGH, March 31.—John Holstetico, a government spy and informer, who testified against the moonshiners in Scotland two weeks ago, was murdered last evening in the Laurel Hill region.

An Anti-Sugar Trust Bill.

PHILADELPHIA, March 31.—Since the Sugar trust, a few days since, acquired control of all the refineries in the country, steps have been taken to arrest the threatened monopoly. Efforts were made to build up an independent refinery on the Delaware river, near Sprackels' refinery, but the projectors have not met with much success. They therefore sought relief in the preparation of a bill for the repeal of the duty of half a cent per pound on refined grades of sugars, which they claim serves its only purpose, allowing the control absolutely of the entire refining trade of the country. A draft of the bill, it is understood, has already been prepared by Samuel Gustine Thompson, a friend of ex-President Cleveland, and this has given rise to an impression the bill is favored by Cleveland, with the idea of forcing the Republican party into the attitude of defending a monopoly if they resist the passage of the bill. The combination acquired control of the business the price of refined sugars has advanced half a cent per pound. Raw sugar has declined from the fact there is but one sugar trust.

A Revolt Feared.

PARIS, March 31.—A Rio dispatch says: A revolt is feared. All troops here and at Pernambuco are confined to the barracks. The police are ordered to suppress the expected disturbances.

Severe Wind Storm.

KANSAS CITY, March 31.—A severe wind storm passed over a portion of Kansas this evening and caused considerable damage. Telegraph facilities are greatly impeded and this city was isolated from the rest after 10 o'clock. The prostration of wires makes it impossible to obtain details of the cyclone.

Trouble in Dahomey.

PARIS, March 31.—A dispatch from Porto Novo states 300 Dahomeyans attacked Kessono. It is believed the natives meditated an attack on Porto Novo and Kessono, and the French have taken measures to repel the attack.

Oregon Prohibition Convention.

PORTLAND, Ore., March 31.—The Prohibition state convention met to-day. It nominated two Congressmen, a judge of the supreme court, presidential electors and delegates to the national convention; adopted a platform demanding the suppression of the liquor traffic; favoring the election of the President, Vice-President and Senators by direct vote of the people, and woman suffrage; it declared the circulating medium may rightly consist of gold, silver and paper, all full legal tender; that the Federal Government on imports should not extend the necessary expenses of the government, economically administered.
